STUDENT REGISTRATION CARD

THE UNIVERSITY OF HONG KONG

This Card is the property of The University of Hong Kong and is not transferable. This Card should be carried with you at all times for access to University facilities. Despite the study period printed on the Card surface, it will be considered invalid once you have terminated your study or your graduation results have been announced. The Card must be returned to the University on cessation of studies for whatever reason(s), and the University may, at its discretion, require you to return it at any time without prior notice. If found, please return the Card to the Registry, The University of Hong Kong.
